Our First Feedback from all your comments and ideas - and losing our "Best Friend"

Tomorrow (Friday 22/12) at 4pm you can hear our first feedback on all your comments when we showed you the video of what Lucy's Mill Bridge ramps could look like. We are on the radio - Welcombe Radio to be precise!

Roger Clay (from the Avon Navigation Trust) and Mike Sheard (one of the consultants who have helped us) will be talking with Louise and Penny on the programme 'Connecting the Dots' ...

Would you like to see a flyover of the ramps that could make Lucy's Mill Bridge a bridge for Everyone?

Please take a look at the video on this post - and at the pictures from the Open Afternoon we held on 2nd

December. What do you think? You can (of course) comment on this post - or please message us if that's what you'd like to do.

Our online survey has now finished. Thanks to more than 300 people who took part. We will be organising more surveying - online and paper surveys - in 2018.

Thanks to everyone who came along on Saturday and for all your input. If you want to know how these ramps were designed, please visit our web site and read this feature <http://bit.ly/LMBRamps>.
